RE: MUR 5693
Aronsohn et al.

Dear Mr. Kleinman:

On November 27, 2007, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found that there is probable cause to believe your clients, Paul Aronsohn and Paul Aronsohn for Congress f/k/a Aronsohn Congressional Exploratory Campaign and Parisa Sabeti, in her official capacity as treasurer ("the Committee"), violated provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Specifically, the Commission found that there is probable cause to believe that Paul Aronsohn violated 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1) by failing to file a Statement of Candidacy designating his principal campaign within fifteen days of becoming a candidate. The Commission also found that there is probable cause to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 433(a) by failing to file a timely Statement of Organization, and violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2) by failing to file a 2005 Year-End Report.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of at least 30 days and no more than 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. If we are unable to reach an agreement after 30 days, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.
